JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $486,579.07 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as set forth in a confidential victim list provided by the Probation Office to the Clerk's Office of the United States District Court [as also noted in the list attached to the PSR]. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Russell Jay Ogden (Ogden), Rudy Leo Aguilar (R. Aguilar), Blaine Andrew Porlas (Porlas), Marco Anthony Alday (Alday), III, Milan Vukelich (Vukelich), Shelly Anne Ogden (S. Ogden), Ameer Adnan Yousef (Yousef), Shawn Phillip Vasquez (Vasquez) and Lloyd Luis Leyh (Leyh) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Leo Norman Aguilar, is hereby committed on Counts 1 and 13 (Dkt.# 17-221) and on Count 1 (Dkt.#17-374) to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 65 months. This term consists of 41 months on each of Count 1 in Docket 17-00221 and Count 1 of Docket 17-00374), to be served concurrently to each other, and 24 months on Count 13 of Docket 17-00221), to be served consecutively to the term imposed on each of Counts 1.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 in Docket Nos. 17-00221 and Docket No. 17-00374, and one year on Count 13 of Docket 17-00374), all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, with the exception of Condition Nos. 5, 6 and 14 of General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify specific persons and organizations of specific risks and shall permit the probation officer to confirm the defendant's compliance with such requirement and to make such notifications.
3. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
4. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
6. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
7. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his/her true legal name or names without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision function.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on January 28, 2019 by 12:00 p.m. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the government's request to dismiss the remaining counts of the First Superseding Indictment in CR 17-221-MWF, and the underlying indictment in CR 17-221-MWF against this defendant only.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider Mr. Aguilar for the residential drug abuse program commonly called RDAP. The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider Mr. Aguilar for designation to FCI terminal island. Should the defendant's designation not be consistent with FCI terminal island, then the Court recommends he be designated in Southern California so he may receive visits from his family. If there is an inconsistency in these recommendations in the view of the Bureau of Prisons, then the RDAP recommendation will control.

The Bond is ordered exonerated upon the verification of self-surrender by the defendant.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
